VARSITY TROUNCES ROCHESTER IN THE FIRST GAME OF THE SEASON

Rochester Team Proves Easy For Hamilton Men—Baumler Pitches Well—Pritchard Stars At Bat.

The Hamilton baseball team got away to a good start in its first game by defeating Rochester 6-1. The diamond was in fair condition, and everything was favorable for fast baseball. It was about 4:30 when things got under way, but the great game put up made up for the lateness in starting.

Although the score was one-sided, the game was very fast and exciting. Hamilton had the edge on Rochester all during the game, and the result was never in doubt. The Buff and Blue got away to a big league start and tallied five runs in the first inning. Captain Fursman, the lead-off man, got to first by beating out a scratch hit. Campbell sacrificed him to second. Johnson walked, and Pritchard, living up to his old reputation, came through with a timely Johnson and Fursman. Gorman walked, and Clark's single scored Pritchard and Gorman. Moffat hit to center scoring Clark. This ended the scoring in the first, and these five runs were enough to put the game on ice.

Rochester scored her lone tally in the fourth. Wattel walked and went to second when Adams was out trying to steal third. He scored when Craig singled over second. Hamilton's sixth score came in the sixth. Gorman walked and stole second. King singled, and Gorman scored. In the other innings the play was very close, and each team threatened to score on several occasions.

Team Works Well

The Hamilton nine worked together to a man. They never failed to come through with a hit when hits meant runs. On the defensive everything was like clockwork. Gorman and Baumler worked well together. Baumler was mixing his fast and slow balls with ease, and in the last six innings his knuckle ball was working to perfection. The infield was air-tight and took everything that came their way. The outfield, although not getting many chances Saturday, looks fast and proved it was there with the bat. It showed up exceptionally well on the paths. Pritchard brought the spectators to their feet in the eighth by making a brilliant steal of third. He also led with two hits in four times at bat, one of these going for a double.

For the visitors Miller, although being a little wild, pitched good ball with the exception of a couple of innings. He kept the hits well scattered except in the first. His control at times was not very good, walking four men during the course of the game. Captain Wattel, Rochester's first sacker, and J. T. Adams were the shining lights on the visiting aggregation. Their defensive playing was good, and they accepted many hard chances in good style.

FOURTEEN MEN REACH FINALS IN CONTEST

High School Orators to Speak in Finals in College Chapel Saturday Morning.

RULES CHANGED SLIGHTLY

Fourteen high school declaimers will take part in the 20th Annual Hamilton Interscholastic Prize Speaking Contest to be held in the Chapel at 11 o'clock on Saturday. As usual classes will be omitted from 10:30 on.

At present all the preliminary contests have been held except the one at Lowville, which is to take place tomorrow. The alumni who have conducted the various contests, under the supervision of Field Secretary Mattoon, are positive that the speakers this year will come up to, if not surpass, the high standard set in past years.

The rules governing the contest this year will differ slightly from those of last year. There is to be no time limit on the speakers, but they are requested not to exceed five minutes. The reason for this change is that a man will probably speak better and not be so apt to hurry his delivery, if he knows that he will not be stopped as soon as he has spoken for five minutes. However, speakers who do not finish within five minutes will not receive so favorable consideration by the judges as the other participants. Also there are to be five judges instead of three as in former contests. The basis for deciding the award shall include the following points: General appearance, manner, interpretation, pronunciation, enunciation, and ability to hold the attention of the audience.

The successful contestants in the preliminaries are: Philip Halpern, Hutchinson-Central High School, Buffalo; Kenneth H. Dutcher, Gloversville High School; Fred E. Burns, Rome Free Academy; John Selden, Westfield High School; Howard Stewart, Tonawanda High School; Dennis Maduro, New Rochelle High School; Lester Sisson, Franklin Academy and Prattsburg High School; Maurice J. Mann, Amsterdam High School; Ernest Youmans, Oxford Academy and Union School; Perre L. Dolan, Hudson High School; John M. Carroll, Johnstown High School; Achilles Catsonis, Cazenovia Seminary; Jacques E. Roberts, Fairport High School.

—Jay Knox, '10, is now a chaplain in the First Division. He is at Battalion Headquarters, with Companies E. F. G. and H, at Putschbad, near Coblenz. He is very hard at work, acting not only as chaplain, but as regimental postmaster, regimental school officer, regimental censor, battalion athletic officer, and mess officer. He is very well and very happy.

HOBART WINS OPENING MEET

Easily Win Majority of Track Events While Hamilton Scores in Field.

DWYER INDIVIDUAL STAR

Last Saturday afternoon Hamilton lost the first track meet of the season to Hobart by the narrow margin of one point, the score being Hobart 57 and Hamilton 56. The Buff and Blue was beaten in all the track events with the exception of the quarter-mile but almost evened up accounts by winning both the low and high hurdles and taking the majority of the field events. The afternoon, although a little cool, was ideal for track work. The cinder path was in fine condition and although a slight wind was blowing, it was not enough to affect the time of the runners.

CAPTAIN "HAL" REED.

Kaiser and Lawler, each scoring eight points, were high point men for Hamilton while Dwyer, who scored thirteen points, was high point man for Hobart. Brower of Hobart was a close second, making ten individual points.

In the one hundred and two hundred and twenty yard dashes Dwyer easily took the top place, winning both by a good margin.

The hardest fought and prettiest race of the day, the quarter mile, was

JABBERWOCKS DISCUSS MODERN VERSE WRITERS

Works of Vachel Lindsay, the Tramp Poet, the Most Popular of Evening.

DISCUSS PERMANENT CLUB

"Modern Legitimate Verse Writers" was the subject taken up at the meeting of the Jabberwocks last Wednesday evening in Professor Fancher's room. All the poetry inspired by the great war, both the thrilling, fiery lines by those authors who have met death in service, and the deeper, more quiet pieces which will have a permanent place in literature, was well presented by Turner, '20. Although free verse was excluded from discussion, the field that remained was so large that careful selection was necessary to cover even the few greatest authors.

Many writers who were well known previous to the great war, who added to their fame by spirited contributions on the recent struggle, were discussed at length. Such, for example, was Edgar Lee Masters, whose verse on city life had won him many friends, for his poem, "O Glorious France," has received the widest praise. Amy Lowell, whose imagist verse has drawn a host of imitators, won attention with her "Patterns." Robert Frost is another whom the war has made famous, while perhaps the best known of the distinctly war poets is Alan Seagar. The fateful prophecy in those well-known lines of his beginning "I have a rendezvous with Death" met with a tragic fulfillment a few weeks later while the author was taking part in an advance from the front line trenches. Seager himself was a volunteer and served long before America entered the war, in the famous "Foreign Legion." It was this experience which formed the background for his poem to the "American Volunteers who died in France," whose permanence can hardly be questioned.

Praises Work of Lindsay

The most popular writer of the evening was Vachel Lindsay, the tramp poet. He travels much over the country, speaking wherever he can get an audience. One of his war poems, "Abraham Lincoln Walks at Midnight," is a sympathetic and yet thrilling picture of the great Emancipator, and has secured a place in nearly all of the best collections of war poems. His volume of poems on the Congo, in particular, displays his skill at producing wierdly rhythmical verse. This quality that makes the verse so effective at the same time makes it difficult to read aloud, so that Professor Carmer, who has heard the poet give a special recital of his verse at Harvard, volunteered to show how it ought to be read. All the mystic life of the jungle is brought out in a correct reading of the poems, and Professor Carmer was warmly applauded. Another poem by the same author, "General Booth Has Gone to Heaven," is in the form of a Salvation Army street hymn, and has a great appeal for its irresistible effect. Great enthusiasm was expressed by the members of the club over Lindsay, and it is hoped that he can be secured to lecture on the Hill at some time in the future.

During the refreshments, Professor Fancher outlined several of his ideas for developing the club. It was suggested that the club have a special room and that it secure suitable furnishings and books of its own, as other colleges have done. The possibility of a public presentation in which all the members should take part was suggested. While plans for restricting the membership of the club were talked over, yet at present all those interested in art of any kind, and not alone those taking the courses in Literature, are welcome. Afterwards, in cleaning up the dishes, several Sophomores were heard to express themselves as wishing some of the Freshmen would accept the invitation to membership in the club.

The next meeting will be held on Monday evening, May 12th, at 7:30, in Professor Fancher's room. Strindberg and Ibanez will be discussed.

—Wesley E. Doxtater, ex-'83, may now be addressed at 406 Howard street, Syracuse, N. Y.

—Ivan M. Ingersoll, '15, and Philip A. Fulton, '16, are spending a two weeks' leave in Spain, while awaiting embarkation for this country.

—Walter D. Bull, '18, writes that he has finally secured his discharge, after various disappointments and setbacks and is now "a free man once more and all set to climb into civvies." For the present he is staying on at the Edgewood Arsenal as a civilian under Civil Service and doing his old work, which he declares to be "a snap." "Walt" says he expects to get a week off in the middle of May so that he can come up to the Hill for Spring Dance and the attendant good time. His present address is Edgewood Arsenal, Edgewood, Md., c|o Captain Sharpe's Office, Administration Building.

The Victory Loan

Hamilton's sons have proudly upheld the noble record of "Our Lady of the Hill" in a manner equal to that of any other college or educational institution in America. Her sons have fought and died in France, her sons have worked steadfastly in camps all over the country for a chance to get "Over there," and her sons have won medals for bravery wherever it has been possible. Many of her sons are back now, back at work to complete that association which has meant so much to them, no matter how far they have traveled from the Hill.

Hamilton helped the United States win the war, not only in men but also by sacrificing the lives of several of her sons on the altar of freedom and democracy. Not only in deeds but also financially Hamilton proved herself back of her government when the Treasury called for aid. Our record here on the Hill was an enviable one and justly so.

Today the need is just as great, in fact it seems more apparent than ever before. The period of reconstruction, that time of readjustment to pre-war days is at hand and must be contended with. The United States has had a hand in cleaning up a mean, dispicable nest of corruption and now is financially embarassed as she faces the problem of the finances necessary to change her status back to that of the days before the war. There is no need to urge the wisdom of the purchase of Victory Loan Bonds. Interest at the rate of four and three-quarters per cent speaks very forcibly for itself.

But strangely enough, the campaign which was started here on the Hill for this, the Fifth Loan, has failed to come up to the expectations. It is not going as well as it might. Somethings has slowed up the enthusiasm of the college at a time when it ought to be the most apparent. That seems to be the only excuse. For there is a need, the investment is good and we would be doing a service to our country. The situation seems to boil down to this. EVERY MAN IN COLLEGE MUST TRY TO DO HIS SHARE. We must make the lives sacrificed in France not ones thrown away uselessly. We must hit the Victory Loan and hit it hard. There is still a chance to subscribe. Do it at once. Don't hesitate!

VARSITY TO MEET UNION ON SUB-FRESHMAN DAY

Union Weak in Some Events and Condition Has Been Retarded by Cold Weather.

CAPTAIN RAPELJE, STAR

The varsity track team will stack up against one of its hardest opponents of the year next Saturday when it meets Union as part of the Sub-Freshman Day proceedings.

Not much could be learned as to the exact prospects since the reports of Union's first meet, that with Williams, have not reached the Hill as yet. We, however, quote the Concordiensis, Union's publication, as stating that the squad has been hampered with cold and rainy weather, much as Hamilton's Varsity has and is not in the best of shape. There is a lack of material in some events and many of the older men have been obliged to enter regardless of their fitness in order to permit competition.

Captain Rapelje is expected to be the star performer of the season. He is entered in the High Jump, where he is reputed to be good for five feet eight or ten inches, the Broad Jump, in which he is also extra good and in the High Hurdles, a new event for him, but in which he is making rapid strides.

The Union squad is composed of Beekman, Hanley, Holmes, in the weights; Eberle and Locke, mile; Barrett, Freedman and Snyder, two miles; Eddy, Rowe, and Holmes, low hurdles; Captain Rapelje, high hurdles; Captain Rapelje, Speer, and Beekman, high jump; Davies, pole vault; Graubart, Captain Rapelje, and Rowe, broad jump; Graubart, Lyman, Potter, and Stevens, in the sprints and middle distances.

Davies is a new man in the pole vault but has been showing some fine form. Graubart is particularly fast in the sprints and Potter is a fine 440 man. Beekman is the weights is sure of a good performance. Barrett and Locke are doing some fine running in the mile and two mile respecively.

Although Union has had bad weather, so has Hamilton and the track squads of both are in about the same condition. Therefore a hot meet can be expected when they clash Sub-Freshman Day.

won by Hamilton. Smith of Hobart led the greater part of the way but was passed by Couper a scant six yards from the tape in a well judged finish. Hobart captured second and third places.

In the half mile Hobart took first and third places, Brower winning, closely followed by Kingsbury. In this race one of the Hobart men was penalized for beating the gun. Brower also took first place in the mile run, which was a very close race, while Williams and Perkins took second and third places for Hamilton.

Kneeland took third place in the two mile run, Hobart getting the first two places.

races, Van Kennan being the only man to fiinish in the high hurdles. The only Hobart man entered in the race knocked down the first three hurdles he attempted and was disqualified. In the low hurdles Pope took first place and Valentine the third. Valentine and Dwyer, who took second place for Hobart, ran an even race up to the last hurdle, where Valentine tripped and lost out.

In the field events Kaiser beat Myler of Hobart by eight inches in the shot put. Eckler took the third place. Kaiser's best put was thirty-three feet, five inches.

Rice and Lawler captured the first and second places respectively in the high jump, beating out Smith of Hobart. In the hammer throw affairs were reversed and Hobart got the first and second places. Eckler took third place.

The broad jump was won by Lawler, closely followed by Kaiser. In the pole vault Kingsley and Fletcher were about evenly matched and the event was a very interesting one, Kingsley winning by two inches. Van Kennan took third place in this event.

The whole meet was intensely interesting as the score never favored one side by any great margin. The score, with the individual points, is as follows:

100-yd. Dash—Dwyer, Hobart, first, Carr, Hobart, second; Reed, Hamilton, third. Time, 10 1-5 sec.

220-yd. Dash—Dwyer, Hobart, first; Holler, Hamilton, second; Reed, Hamilton, third. Time, 22 4-5 sec.

440-yd. Run—Couper, Hamilton, first; Smith, Hobart, second; Hauson, Hobart, third. Time, 55 4-5 sec.

880-yd. Run — Brower, Hobart, first; Kingsbury, Hamilton, second; Howe, Hobart, third. Time, 2 min. 17 sec.

Mile Run—Brower, Hobart, first; Williams, Hamilton, second; Perkins, Hamilton, third. Time, 5 min. 4 4-5 sec.

Two Mile Run—Reimer, Hobart, first; Willis, Hobart, second; Kneeland, Hamilton, third. Time, 11 min. 26 sec.

120-yd Hurdles — Van Kennan, Hamilton, first; other entrants were disqualified. Time 20 2-5 sec.

220-yd. Low Hurdles—Pope, Hamilton, first; Dwyer, Hobart, second; Valentine, Hamilton, third. Time 27 2-5 sec.

Spice o' Life

Weakly Pome

"Veni, vidi, vici,"
The Hobart fellows cry;
The score was rather freaky,
And was almost a tie.
'Tis true their men were plucky,
But yet they ought to say,
"Veni, vidi, lucky
The one point fell our way."
Old Rochester found that our nine
Was well up on their game;
As base-ballites they didn't shine,
But we are glad they came.
Sub-freshmen men are coming soon,
So polish up your manners;
Make use of some spare afternoon
And dig up all your banners;
First impressions are the best,
But that I think you know,
So do your part, they'll do the rest;
Then watch our pledge list grow.

Flatfoot was having much trouble in finding a piece of chalk that would write. Turning to his sophomore math class, he burst out, "Would the morals of any of you young gentlemen be corrupted if I should swear?"

Kaiser, Clarke, and Barry raised their hands.

Reed: "Rodgers, why do you always close your eyes at the finish of a race?"

Joe: "So that I can't see how many are ahead of me. Perhaps some time I can kid myself into thinking that I have won."

Truth!

The freshmen all to Hades went,
Some "hot stuff" there to learn.
But Satan sent them back again;
They were too green to burn.

Overheard in Commons a short time ago:

Dick Kaiser: "How do you do, Dr. Stryker."

Old Prex: "Hello, are you a freshman?"

THE young chap who buys a Maher Suit last always wishes he had bought a Maher Suit first. A Maher suit needs only the trial of a "slip-on" to breed conviction of style impeccable.

An Ununsually Fine Array of Stars To be Presented This Month.

The Avon Theatre, Utica, has arranged a program for the month of May that is practically impossible to beat. Stars of unusual prominence and noted productions make this program worthy of special comment.

The month opened with Marguerite Clark in that notable stage success, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." During the first half of this week Constance Talmadge delighted capacity audiences with her charming work in "Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots." Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in "Once a Mason" brought forth the usual amount of laughs.

Commencing Thursday and continuing for the balance of the week the great Nazimova will be presented in her latest sensation "Out of the Fog." This is a remarkable production founded on the stage play and famous story, " 'Ception Shoals." Those who witnessed the presentation of "Eye for Eye" can appreciate the rare treat that is in store for them when they see Nazimova's newest gift to the screen, "Out of the Fog."

NAZIMOVA in "OUT OF THE FOG"

The week of May 12th will be divided between Geraldine Farrar, in a dramatic masterpiece entitled "Shadows", and Ernest Truex with Louise Huff in a comedy riot, "Oh, You Women." There have been few comedy offerings that can compare with "Oh, You Women". It is just one long, loud laugh, presenting a novel theme that is bound to create considerable discussion. Just take a tip and come early.

Bookings for the latter part of May include Norma Talmadge in "The Probation Wife," Rex Beach's famous play "The Brand," Clara Kimball Young in "Cheating Cheaters," and the greatest picture of the season, "Mickey." Box seats may be reserved now for any date in May.—Adv.

—Baseball game tomorrow afternoon with Syracuse University. Game will be called at 4 o'clock.

—The New York State Commissioner of Health has recently made a set of rules and regulations for the protection from contamination of the water supply of Hamilton College. These rules forbid trespassing in the region of the watershed supplying the reservoirs, order a regular inspection of the source of water supply, a report as to the conditions observed, and provide a suitable fine for offenses against these rules. The regulations are dated April 7.

—Base Hospital No. 48, of which Harold S. Dodge, '18, is a member, arrived in this country on Monday, April 28th, and the men were sent to Camp Upton to be "deloused" and discharged. As there are only 170 men in the unit, it was expected that the process of discharging would not take long and Dodge, and many others in the Unit from Utica, may be expected to reach that city this week.

John Rushmore, '16, In Gas Defense

Stationed During War at Laboratory at Astoria, Long Island.

TELLS OF GREAT WORK

The following paragraphs are extracts from a letter received a short time ago from John W. Rushmore, '16, who during the war was in the Gas Defense Division of the Chemical Warfare Service and was stationed at Astoria, L. I. A huge laboratory was located here for the testing and manufacture of chemicals used as absorbents for gas masks.

"This plant was located at Edgewood, Md., and used for the manufacture of mustard gas and for filling shells with this same gas. The buildings were all fireproof, of the latest type, made of concrete, brick or cement, and were laid out in the shape of a triangle; that is having three separate groups of buildings at the points of the triangle. This would prevent, in case of an explosion, the gas from being carried by the wind and reaching more than one other group of buildings and consequently killing the men. This was done on account of sad experiences with other plants where explosions had taken place and asphyxiated or burnt the entire force of workers.

"One of the features of the plant was the large hospital which had the latest appliances for attending to the men affected by the gas. This was necessary because in the seven months before the war ended this plant had accidents averaging three and one half per cent a day, or over one hundred per cent a month. You can hardly realize it or believe it true for so little has been said about it, but in these seven months 900 men were killed and 1500 were crippled for life, being blinded, having a limb withered or some other terrible injury.

Many Heroes in Work

In handling such large quantities of gas some of it was bound to leak out and if it touched a man he was burned, and if any of it got in his lungs he soon died, having his lungs eaten out. Many men died a horrible death testing different types of masks. As a new type of mask was invented a man was placed in a chamber filled with gas with this mask and given orders to leave as soon as he noticed the mask leaking. Often the mask would leak and the gas would be of such a type that it would not be noticed and the man would be killed. Even if the mask proved a success and no gas leaked through, after several of these tests the tester's lungs were generally affected by breathing poor air and he had to fight to save himself from death. This is the kind of service these men performed and yet you hear many sneers at the men in the Gas Defense Service.

"In this plant there were 1500 chemists, men representing 347 different colleges."

—Dr. Houghton Love, '05, who is spending a year in medical study in this country as a Fellow of the Rockefellow Foundation, is to return to China in August. He is at present at Johns Hopkins University.

—Arthur B. Maynard, '06, was on the Hill for a few days last week. He was on his way from his home in Arizona to New York City.

—Donald R. Grant, ex-'18, is Ordnance Sergeant at the Basseus Docks at Bordeaux. He has been in France since last July, where he receives Life regularly and his mother says that "nothing we send to him is more highly appreciated than Life, which links him to the happy year which he spent at Hamilton College."

—Rev. Carroll L. Bates, '83, who has been supplying the pulpit of the Episcopal Church of Norwich, N. Y., in the absence of the rector, Rev. Harrison W. Foreman, '03, recently changed his residence to 516 North James street, Rome, N. Y. Rev. Mr. Foreman, who was on the Hill last week, has been a chaplain in the army on overseas duty, and is now under treatment in an army hospital for throat trouble. His address in Norwich, when he returns to his pastorate, will be 14 Elm street.

SENIORS HAVE ANNUAL DINNER

In Italian Room of Hotel Utica With About Twenty-five Members Present.

"HAL" REED TOASTMASTER

The Class of 1919 held its annual banquet Monday evening, May 5, in the Italian Room at Hotel Utica, with about 25 members of the class present. The banquet began at 6:15 p. m. and adjourned in time for the Seniors to attend the evening performances at the various theaters. The menu proved delicious and the speeches were the best in the history of the class.

Harold H. Reed, president of the class, acted as toastmaster, and the evening's features were as follows:

"The Joy of Living," ("Take, O, take those lips away."—Shakes.), "Muggins" Stone.

"The Secrets of Success, or Points on Poker," ("A truth that's told with bad intent, beats all the lies you can invent."—Wm. Blake), "Jimmy" Fursman.

"The Future of Ireland in 1919," ("Dreams are true while they last, and do we not live in dreams?"—Tenn.), "Jack" Bratton.

"Echoes from the Cold, Cold, World," George Sicard, '06.

The deep thought and preparation given to these subjects enabled the orators to present their speeches in an admirable manner, so as to win the instant applause of all. Sicard's "Echoes" by no means chilled the expectations of the Seniors as to their success in life, and were heartily applauded.

The banquet committee, to whom much credit is due, consisted of Ferguson and White.

The menu was as follows:

Little Neck Clams
Potage Ambassadeur en Tasse
Celery Olives
Filet of Sole
Breast of Capon Virginie
Grilled Sweet Potatoes
New Cauliflower Saute
Strawberry Short Cake
Petit Fours
Cafe Noir

OXFORD TO PLAY U. F. A.

The various features for Sub Freshman Day are being rushed along to completion by the various directors, and Field Secretary Mattoon, '16, promises the best Sub-Freshman Day in the history of the College.

The Oxford High School baseball team will play the Utica Free Academy team Saturday morning at nine o'clock. A delegation of about sixty rooters is expected to accompany the Oxford team, making the trip by automobile.

The college dinner and smoker, to be held in Commons Hall on Friday night will be followed by a movie show, immediately after the dinner. This will be put on by the Y. M. C. A., and some views of the Hill are anticipated as part of the screen entertainment.

COMMENCEMENT PLAYS PLAN OF CHARLATANS

To Give Four One-act Plays on Friday Night of Commencement Week.

REVIVE "HELENA'S HUSBAND"

The Third Annual Commencement Performance of The Charlatans will consist this year of four one-act plays, which are as follows: "A Night at an Inn" by Lord Dunsany, "Two Crooks and a Lady" by Eugene Pilot, "Night" by James Oppenheim, and "Helena's Husband" by Philip Moeller.

The first of these plays is the second one by Lord Dunsany that the Charlatans have attempted, the first being "King Argimines and the Unknown Warrior," which made such a highly favorable impression at Commencement two years ago. "A Night at an Inn" is a tragedy of the present day with an element of the mysterious and has for its theme that of the "Gods of the Mountain" by the same author. The cast will include eight parts, of which four are speaking parts. Those selected for the speaking parts are: The Toff, Jessup, 19; Sniggers, Clarke, '21; Albert, May, '21; Bill, Nino, '20. The men who will fill the pantomime parts are still to be selected.

"Night" and "Two Crooks and a Lady" were selected as the most satisfactory of the four plays, which were produced this Winter, and are to be given again because they have never been produced on the Hill before.

It is planned to revive "Helena's Husband", which is one of the most successful plays put on by the Charlatans since they have undertaken plays of a literary as well as dramatic significance. The leading part in this play was taken by Dodge, '18, President of the Charlatans in 1918. Dodge has just returned from service overseas and expects to be in Utica for some weeks to come. The Charlatans are going to take advantage of his presence near the Hill by reviving this very amusing historical satire.

The cast for this play will be as follows: Helena, Dodge, '18; Menelaus, Ballot, '21; Paris, Barry, '21, and Analytikos, Stratton, '19.

INTRAMURAL DEPT. MAKES PLANS FOR TOURNAMENT

Stone, Last Year's Champion, to Again Try for Premier Honors in Singles.

14 MEN ENTER DOUBLES

The annual tennis tournament, which is usually held in the Fall, will start today, if the weather permits. There are several excellent players in college now and the winner is sure to have a hard struggle before he is victor. To date twenty-two men have signed up for the singles, but only fourteen for the doubles. If enough interest is shown in this turnament, there is a possibility of an inter-fraternity contest. Stone, '19, last year's champion, is sure to make a strong bid for premier honors in the singles and with Martin, '20, should put up a strong fight in the doubles.

The following men are listed to play in the singles: Jewett, Fletcher, Conger, Seaver, B. Brandt, K. Turner, Cobb, Coupe, Alfange, Hinke, Paton, Stone, Getman, Brown, Finegan, Sherman, Wheeler, Guy, Martin, Jessup, Fry, and W. Griffith. Those who are out for the doubles are: Jewett and Thompson, Seaver and Conger, Finegan and Cobb, Paton and Coupe, Brown and Ingersoll, Brandt and Turner, Martin and Stone.

TRUSTEES REVIVE INTEREST IN ROAD

Employ Engineers to Make Surveys and Offer Plans for Improvement.

TRY TO INTEREST STATE

The notorious thoroughfare up College Hill is once more in the limelight. It is not there because the farmers in the surrounding countryside or the students journeying back from Utica have forced it there. It is the Trustees of Hamilton College who have definitely hauled out the matter of a new or improved road and brought it into the limelight.

For some years the Trustees and officers of the College as well as all residents on that road have been greatly distressed over the wretched condition of the highway up the Hill, and have used their best efforts to interest the proper authorities in its improvement. Various fine promises have been made, but no visible fulfilment has as yet been noticed. Automobiles are getting stuck and stranded there every day after a rain, and when dry it is rough and rutty.

Competent engineers have been employed to make surveys and suggestions. Two plans are proposed, one to make the present road, even with it terrible grades, in a passable condition, or else to lay out a new road where the grades will be easier. All the Trustees were of the same opinion as to the necessity of making this improvement, and doing it at once. The estimates are that it will involve the expenditure of a good many thousand dollars, but at the recent trustee meeting it was determined to see if something could actually be accomplished. Very many intending visitors and others having business on the Hill turn back when they catch a glimpse of the horrible roadway ahead. The committee on buildings and grounds with Messrs. Charles B. Rogers and Warren I. Lee added to it were instructed to make a special investigation and effort to interest state and federal funds in this enterprise, but in any event to select a satisfactory plan and put it into operation if possible.

Thus it seems that a considerable change up the Hill is imminent. A fine new road would bring the College out of the proverbial background into the pale of civilization.

—Captain Henry H. Jessup, ex-'13, landed at Newport News recently and is now at Camp Upton awaiting his discharge.

MUSICAL CLUBS CONCERT

Tomorrow night the Musical Clubs will appear for their last concert of the season. It is to be held in the New Century Auditorium in Utica, under the auspices of the Beta Tau Sorority. Manager Kneeland has announced that the admission price will be seventy-five cents, and he hopes that a goodly crowd from the Hill will attend. After the programme there will be dancing. Pritchett's orchestra will officiate and promise the latest thing in dance music. With the experience of several trips behind them, the Clubs should render a pleasing concert and it is hoped that many will take advantage of the last opportunity to hear the best Musical Clubs that Hamilton ever put out.

BASEBALL TEAM TO PLAY SYRACUSE AND C. C. N. Y.

Showing Saturday Against Rochester Pleases Coach Ziel—Plans Busy Week of Practice.

HOPE TO IMPRESS SUB-FROSH

Tomorrow our warriors of the diamond will cross bats with the Syracuse Nine. After the creditable showing the Buff and Blue men made last Saturday against Rochester's aggregation, we know what to expect in the future. Saturday's game was one which showed that the fellows were working together and what is just as important—using their heads. Syracuse has turned out a good baseball machine this year and will put up a good fight for the laurels. Syracuse defeated Rutgers last week, who will oppose the Buff and Blue here on May 17, but received a trimming at the hands of Lafayette. Coach Ziel was satisfied with the work of the team Saturday and promises a good game tomorrow.

On next Saturday afternoon we stack up against another good team, that of C. C. N. Y. We are told that this college has molded into shape much good baseball material and should afford a real game for Hamilton fans.

In all probability the line-up will remain the same for Wednesday's game at least. Coach Ziel is planning a week of hard work for the varsity to knock the edges off the team and intends to give the men a great deal of "inside baseball" during the next week. The team itself is out to win if it is possible, especially Saturday, to aid in the college's impression upon its guests, who will be on the Hill for Sub-Freshman Day proceedings.

—A meeting of the members of the College Church was held Thursday for the purpose of electing elders. John Reid was elected from the class of 1921, and Gordon Kibler from the class of 1922.

—J. P. Hull, '13, since becoming Assistant State Geologist of Georgia in 1917, has been engaged in making detailed reports on war minerals, and is co-author of several state publications.
